

Hello I am sending you a quick e-mail to express my feelings about allowing Sunday bow hunting in Connecticut. I think that the proposal is long over due and would be a huge step forward for all archery hunters like myself. I also feel that this would help others to pass along the outdoors skills and traditions to the younger generations. Thank You. Please make it legal Bob Guida