

Good morning

I am writing in support of Sunday hunting. Many hunters have to work all week, including Fridays. This really only gives people in this position one day of hunting per week during the season – Saturday. Additionally, if one belongs to a certain church (like Seventh Day Adventists) Saturday is worship day, not Sunday. Therefore, I see no logical reason Sunday hunting should not be permitted.

Thank you for your attention.

Christine Garcia
Coventry, CT