3 "(10) If the university designates a project as suitable for a design-4 build contract, the university may enter into a single contract with a 5 design-builder recommended by a selection panel and selected by the 6 university. The university shall give notice of such project and 7 specifications for such project by posting such notice on the Internet.
8 The university shall establish a selection panel for each project to score 9 the qualifications and past performance of each design-builder who 10 submits a competitive proposal to the university for such project. The 11 selection panel shall score the qualifications and past performance of 12 each design-builder using a predetermined scoring method developed 13 by the university and provided to each design-builder in advance of 14 such design-builder's development of the competitive proposal. The 15 selection panel's scoring method may be unique to each project, but 16 shall consist of combining the score of each design-builder's

17 qualifications and past performance and evaluating the technical merit
18 of the competitive proposal and each design-builder's projected project 19 cost. The design-build contract shall (A) include, but not be limited to, 20 such project elements as site acquisition, permitting, engineering,
21 design and construction, and (B) be based on the competitive proposal
22 submitted by the design-builder that is selected by the university. No

24 than five hundred thousand dollars may be awarded to a design-25 builder who is not prequalified for the project in accordance with

27 responsibilities of the design-builder to deliver a completed and 28 acceptable project on a date certain and the maximum costs of the 29 project and, if applicable, as a separate item, the cost of any site 30 acquisition. The university shall determine all other requirements and
