

2/20/13

I support Bill 5299, regarding the authorization of use of antileptice medications in school settings. I do not have a child with epilepsy, but recently became aware of the issue at hand through a friend. It sounds like this legislation is necessary to save children's lives in those, unlikely, yet potentially tragic instances where a nurse is not present and immediate help is needed.

Thank you for your support.

Mary Cannon, Esq.

mec_cannon@yahoo.com