I teach two sessions of prekindergarten. There is no common core for prekindergarten so they want us to use the kindergarten common core and try to water it down some. This is not developmentally appropriate for 3 and 4 years old! They are expecting so much from these young children. They need time to play, socialize, learn conflict resolution strategies and play some more!

Nancy Gramolini