

HRB-5562

We support this bill. For too long students have been made to think they are stupid and lazy vs understanding their handicap and acknowledging not everyone learns the same way. If we want a successful future for our children, we need to see their greatness.

Barbara Saccardo