

I support Sunday hunting across the State of Connecticut on both public and State land. Many other States allow it and why lose revenue to other states where I hunter can travel and hunt over the course of a weekend when we can do it here in our own state.

I could continue to show many reasons and certainly will send a lengthy letter if requested on the support of Sunday hunting.

Thank you for your efforts

Keith Andrews