

Dear Legislators:

The Airline Trail is a major amenity of our region. Because it consists of essentially flat terrain it is especially valuable to Seniors who must avoid hilly trails. Adding this extension to others already realized forms part of a natural and benign progression.

Yours sincerely,

Marvin R. Cox
Emeritus Faculty
Department of History
University of Connecticut