

We heartily support the bill before the legislature which prohibits storage or disposal of hydrofracking waste in CT. Fracking has great economic and environmental pluses and great minuses, and to the extent waste from this activity is not allowed in CT we will all benefit from the good aspects and avoid the worst. We hope science will eventually figure out what to do with the waste in an economical manner.

Sincerely, Hector & Erica Prud'homme