

I am unable to appear in person on March 13th. I am a retired teacher who will be moving out of state due to the CT state income tax. About half of my pension was money I saved after taxes and contributed to the voluntary account. I should not be taxed again on my hard earned savings. I favor the tax reduction for senior retired teachers.

Dolores Vito