Dear Dr. Horowitz,

My name is Sebastian Danila. I am writing to you on behalf of Colleen Kerwick, whom I had the privilege of calling my wife for close to six years.

As her former husband, I know Colleen very well and I can attest to her kind and generous heart, the nobility of her character and to the integrity and dedication she brought to every aspect of our daily life together. She is a very attentive, encouraging and caring person, a person who was for a number of years not only my wife but also my best friend and confidant - and in whom I knew I could always trust and rely on unconditionally and unfailingly.

Additionally, she comes from an exceptionally warm and supportive family, who was always there for us if we ever needed anything. They always embraced me and treated me as their son, and I - in my many interactions with them - came to consider them as my own family.

Even though our paths have taken divergent courses following our marriage, I will always look back at my time spent with Colleen with my fondest memories. I feel truly blessed that I met her and that, for a while, our lives have so unforgettably intersected.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me via e-mail at this address (sdanila@msn.com) or via mobile at 917-498-9121.

Best regards,

Sebastian Danila
