The Connecticut Chapter of WTP Family Preservation are conducting audits of Guardian Ad Litems (GAL) in the Family Court System in Connecticut. The preliminary findings on GAL Sue Cousineau merit her suspension pending the conclusion of our investigation.

1. Potentially represents up to 16 individual children in one morning

As a GAL cannot control the motions filed by attorneys for the parents on a case, it is imperative that they do not over-extend themselves when their work is central to the constitutional rights of parents and the care and custody of minor children.

September 30, 2013	GAL Cousineau had 11 appearances (34 motions)
October 7, 2013	GAL Cousineau had 11 appearances (35 motions)
October 15, 2013	GAL Cousineau had 9 appearances (15 motions)
October 28 2013	GAL Cousineau had 5 appearances (12 motions)
April 26, 2010	GAL Cousineau had 16 appearances
May 3, 2010	GAL Cousineau had 13 appearances
March 1, 2010	GAL Cousineau had 6 appearances
September 27 2010	GAL Cousineau had 5 appearances

EXHIBIT A: Calendars from test dates.

2. Concerning Billing Practices

2.4 hours were billed by GAL Cousineau on one case on August 24, 2009 and she had 6 cases on the calendar that day. The Middletown court was not open for 14. 4 hours on August 24, 2009.

1.5 hours were billed to prepare for a hearing, she subsequently billed on October 5, 2009 at 6.0 hours. GAL Cousineau's day to day billing on the case reflects an inordinate attention to detail with hours spent on "receipt and review" unspecified motions and spending up to 0.4 hours listening to a "voicemail message", making her need to "prepare further" concerning.

EXHIBIT B: Billing

3. Motions to take Shelter from her Ward:

GAL Cousineau's Motion for Order to Pay GAL fees states "each party has the ability to pay the fees of the guardian ad litem. While the defendant does not have an income, she has a substantial asset in the marital home". Taking a minor child's shelter in exchange for her services as accounted for does not further her wards interest.

EXHIBIT C: Motion for Payment of Fees

3. Unsatisfactory Results

Mothers, Fathers and emancipated children were interviewed in approximately ten (10) cases. 90% had very negative things to say about their experiences with GAL Cousineau. Many will only come forward on condition of anonymity but many are in the process of sending in bills to audit.

EXHIBIT D: Contemporaneous notes of Parent Interview

4. Ethics

The Ethical rules require the use of a personal "A" (attorney) Juris number on each case, as opposed the "F" (firm) Juris number when making appearances before the court. Sue Cousineau uses both Juris numbers 306902 and 411109.

Note: Fax markings are not accepted.

Counsel and self-represented parties must give timely notice of markings to all self-represented parties and counsel of record. The court may impose sanctions if notice is not given.

The following information must be given when making a telephone marking:

- The position of the case on the calendar
- The name and docket number of the case
- The entry number and title of motion
- The full name of the person making the marking and the law firm name, if applicable
- Confirmation that counsel and self represented parties of record have been notified of the marking

For matters marked "READY," counsel and self-represented parties of record must come to court on the day of the calendar. The court will attempt to hear cases in which a party is represented by a volunteer (pro bono) attorney first.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information is available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/StandOrders and forms are available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms.

Note: In accordance with the federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

NOTICE (continued from Column 1)

Note: all citations must be re-issued unless the court orders otherwise.

Markings by attorneys must be made electronically through E-Services (www.jud.ct.gov). Self-represented (pro se) parties and attorneys who have obtained an exclusion from E-Services requirements must submit markings by calling 860-343-6400.

Note: Fax markings are not accepted.

Counsel and self-represented parties must give timely notice of markings to all self-represented parties and counsel of record. The court may impose sanctions if notice is not given.

The following information must be given when making a telephone marking:

- The position of the case on the calendar
- The name and docket number of the case
- The entry number and title of motion
- The full name of the person making the marking and the law firm name, if applicable
- Confirmation that counsel and self represented parties of record have been notified of the marking

For matters marked "READY," counsel and self-represented parties of record must come to court on the day of the calendar. The court will attempt to hear cases in which a party is represented by a volunteer (pro bono) attorney first.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information is available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/StandOrders and forms are available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms.

Note: In accordance with the federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

By Order of the Court.

Note: all citations must be re-issued unless the court orders otherwise.

Markings by attorneys must be made electronically through E-Services (www.jud.ct.gov). Self-represented (pro se) parties and attorneys who have obtained an exclusion from E-Services requirements must submit markings by calling 860-343-6400.

Note: Fax markings are not accepted.

Counsel and self-represented parties must give timely notice of markings to all self-represented parties and counsel of record. The court may impose sanctions if notice is not given.

The following information must be given when making a telephone marking:

- The position of the case on the calendar
- The name and docket number of the case
- The entry number and title of motion
- The full name of the person making the marking and the law firm name, if applicable
- Confirmation that counsel and self represented parties of record have been notified of the marking

For matters marked "READY," counsel and self-represented parties of record must come to court on the day of the calendar. The court will attempt to hear cases in which a party is represented by a volunteer (pro bono) attorney first.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Additional information is available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud.ct.gov/external/super/StandOrders and forms are available on the Judicial Branch website at http://www.jud2.ct.gov/webforms.

Note: In accordance with the federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

By Order of the Court.

MARKING PROCEDURES

Matters printed on the short calendar must be marked "READY" to be considered by the Court.

Short calendar markings may be made from 9:00 in the morning on the Tuesday before the short calendar to 4:00 in the afternoon of the Thursday before the short calendar. If a state holiday falls on the Friday before the date of the calendar, matters may be marked from 9:00 Tuesday morning to 11:00 Thursday morning. In the event a state holiday falls on Thursday preceding the calendar, matters may be marked from 9:00 a.m. Tuesday to 5:00 p.m. Wednesday.

If a calendar is canceled due to unexpected events, parties may reclaim their motions to the next available calendar. If, however, the matter needs immediate action by the court, the party may apply for permission to schedule an earlier hearing date with the court.
