Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court location different from where the case was filed. Please see the JDNO/Notices tab on the Case Detail screen for scheduling location information.

Note: This listing of court activity may include motions or pleadings that were written onto the short calendar by the clerk. For items where the time is not displayed, please contact the clerk's office for further information.

Periodic changes to terminology may be made which do not affect the status of the case.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court location different from where the case was filed. Please see the JDNO/Notices tab on the Case Detail screen for scheduling location information.

Note: This listing of court activity may include motions or pleadings that were written onto the short calendar by the clerk. For items where the time is not displayed, please contact the clerk's office for further information.

Periodic changes to terminology may be made which do not affect the status of the case.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court location different from where the case was filed. Please see the JDNO/Notices tab on the Case Detail screen for scheduling location information.

Note: This listing of court activity may include motions or pleadings that were written onto the short calendar by the clerk. For items where the time is not displayed, please contact the clerk's office for further information.

Periodic changes to terminology may be made which do not affect the status of the case.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.

Judicial ADR events may be heard in a court location different from where the case was filed. Please see the JDNO/Notices tab on the Case Detail screen for scheduling location information.

Note: This listing of court activity may include motions or pleadings that were written onto the short calendar by the clerk. For items where the time is not displayed, please contact the clerk's office for further information.

Periodic changes to terminology may be made which do not affect the status of the case.

Disclaimer: For civil and family cases statewide, case information can be seen on this website for a period of time, from one year to a maximum period of ten years, after the disposition date. If the Connecticut Practice Book Sections 7-10 and 7-11 give a shorter period of time, the case information will be displayed for the shorter period. Under the Federal Violence Against Women Act of 2005, cases for relief from physical abuse, foreign protective orders, and motions that would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of a protected party may not be displayed and may be available only at the courts.
