

I'm not sure if the state of CT is on a crusade to destroy this state, but it sure seems like it. Hence I'm currently liquidating assets to leave CT once and for all. I can't deal with the excessive taxes and regulations anymore. Much more opportunity elsewhere and so many I know have already left over the last few years. You folks are out of control.

Paul DeFelice