

Dear House Committee Members,

As a small business owner of apartment buildings in Connecticut, I am strongly OPPOSED to Section 103.5 and any other sections that allow for fees to be charged in conjunction with a statewide property maintenance code.

Excessive fees and onerous regulations such as this are counter productive, as ultimately these costs must be passed along to our tenants and contribute to the lack of quality affordable housing in our state.