

It sometimes happens that when the legislature passes a bill, it results in people dying. If you pass this bill, it will certainly happen. People will be killed. The victims will be the elderly, the handicapped and the depressed people.

The vocation of a physician is to save lives, to heal, to treat depression and pain. To include poisoning as a medical treatment option is a perversion. Please support a legislative and medical framework that is truly compassionate.

George Meagher,
14 Blue Ridge Drive
Trumbull CT