

Sunday hunting is the last blue law that I can think of. land owners should have the right to use there land as they see fit.we work all week the time that is left to go for food hunting is limited, this would work well for me. I do hope that this bill would make it better for me and many others Phillip w mauriello