

As a Connecticut hunter for over 45 years I'd like to voice my approval for the Sunday hunting bill currently up for vote. The state has removed the Sunday Blue Laws from most other areas within the state and I can find no valid reason to keep this restriction on hunting. I especially agree with approving private land hunting on Sunday because there are no other groups or individuals impacted by having hunters on private land on Sundays.

Please approve this legislation to allow Sunday hunting.

Robert Maguda
131 Sandra Lane
Plantsville, CT 06479