DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Notice of Intent to Adopt Regulations

In accordance with the provisions of Section 4-168(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes, as amended, notice is hereby given that the Department of Labor proposes to modify the Department's unemployment compensation regulations pertaining to overpayments, under the authority of CGS § 31-250.

Statement of Purpose: The proposed regulations are intended to update the regulations to modify current practices, and align the regulations with the modifications to CGS §§ 31-241 and 31-273 of the Connecticut General Statutes pursuant to Public Act 13-66.

All interested parties who wish to submit data, views, or arguments may do so in writing within thirty (30) days following publication of this notice, via post, facsimile or email. Any such written material should be directed to:

NOTICES OF INTENT TO ADOPT REGULATIONS and Other Regulation-Related Public Notices (scroll down to view notices)

For proposed new and amended regulations initially noticed on and after July 1, 2013

Regulations First Noticed On and After July 1, 2013

Notices of intent to adopt new and amended regulations of state agencies first issued on and after July 1, 2013 are posted on this page. They are no longer published in the Connecticut Law Journal. (See Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) section 4-168, as amended by Public Acts 13-247 and 13-274.)

EXCEPTIONS

Agency-Specific Notice Rules

If an agency-specific law continues to require Connecticut Law Journal publication on and after July 1, 2013, the notice will also be published in the Law Journal.

Regulations First Noticed Before July 1, 2013

If proposed new and amended regulations were initially noticed in the Connecticut Law Journal before July 1, 2013, any miscellaneous notices related to that initial notice--such as notice extending the public comment period--will continue to be published in the Law Journal.

DSS Operational Policies

Notices of intent to adopt new Department of Social Services (DSS) operational policies in regulation form continue to be published in the Connecticut Law Journal. For more information, click here for the DSS Operational Policies page on this website.

Non-substantive technical amendments and technical repeals

Notice of Intent is not required. However, on and after July 1, 2013, the text of proposed non-substantive technical amendments and repeals must be submitted to the Secretary of the State for posting on this web page before being submitted for approval to the Attorney General and and Legislative Regulation Review Committee. No public hearing or comment period is required. (See CGS Section 4-168(g), as amended.)

Automatic Notice of Regulation-Making Proceedings

Currently, there is no centralized automatic notice service for regulation-making proceedings. To request automatic notice for a particular agency, contact that agency and request to be placed on its regulation-making notification list pursuant to CGS section 4-168(a)(3), as amended. For a list of agency contact persons, click here.

Information for State Agencies

For more information regarding new notice posting requirements, please view the Information and Forms page.

Notice text is posted exactly as received from the proposing agency.
It is not edited by the Office of the Secretary of the State.

To submit data, views or arguments regarding a proposed regulation, follow the instructions in its Notice of Intent.
