

Library funding is critical in the State of CT. Libraries today are becoming the centers of resource and information for many small rural towns. The funding that the Town of Pomfret receives from the State is valuable and important in order to keep our library active and up to date. Libraries are a thing of the future, not old tired books and papers. They offer informative programming and pre and after school programs, retirement programs and online resourcing for so many.

Ann Hinchman
Chair, Board of Trustees
Pomfret, CT