Testimony for Public Hearing on Library Budget Proposals (State of Connecticut)

If we look at the services libraries provide we realize that they serve all of the community - wealthy, poor, elderly, children, those searching for work, those doing research for established businesses, those wishing to establish their own business, the homeless and the well heeled. They serve all of the community by educating, entertaining, supporting literacy, entertaining and on and on.

Please don't cut or reduce financial support of libraries. The money saved is a tiny portion of the State budget and it could not be spent in a better way than supporting our Public Libraries.
