

Please support the private providers funding this year. The private providers, including the Kennedy Center of Trumbull CT. provide high quality care for thousands of CT citizens at half the price the state supervised agencies cost. And the quality is higher with no state agencies for the disabled receiving national qualification such as CARF which many of the private agencies receive. If you support the private providers you will save millions of dollars and provide a higher quality of care.

Robert D. Chessin, MD
Fairfield, CT