

As a retired School Psychologist who worked some 24 years with children with disabilities, I am requesting that the State Legislature rethink the proposed cuts by the Governor to DDS. Having watched the number of families dealing with children with severe disabilities increase over this span of time and having also seen the progress that has been made more recently, I find it incredibly difficult to imagine cutting these services. Please rethink this proposal; there are alternatives; think possibilities....

Joyce DeWolfe
117 Boggs Hill Rd
Newtown, CT 06470