

I currently work as a Behaviorist with individuals diagnosed with a disability. Services provided by the Department of Developmental Services are crucial to their success. It is hard for me to imagine the governor would even propose such budget cuts. I have witnessed lives being changed and people becoming more independent in their communities. I urge you, as a voter, not to make the proposed budget cuts to funding sources that effect providing services to people diagnosed with a disability.

Judy Goldberg, M.A.
JM Enterprises, LLC
jmenterprisesllc.org
203-506-4400