

Please support this bill which will outlaw selling and importing microbeads in CT. While seemingly harmless, they have a devastating impact on the long island sound.

Additionally, there are alternatives available -- and many manufacturers are already using them.

Sincerely

Marty Isaac