

I write in opposition to the bill that would permit Keno gambling in Connecticut. From all I have read, it victimizes the poor and downtrodden, and is a regressive tax. There are enough ways to gamble.

Francis G. Pennarola