

I oppose the legislation which would authorize Keno gambling in Connecticut.

The way to balance the budget is to reduce spending rather than to authorize expanded gambling activity in the State for the purpose of raising new revenue.

Gambling is addictive and can lead to personal debt, bankruptcy, family problems, and crime. Don't increase the risk of these things happening in Connecticut.

Gardner Mundy
Norfolk, CT