

Committee members,

I would like to express my strong opposition to adding keno gaming to the gambling already in Connecticut. Trying to balance a poorly managed state budget on the backs of the most vulnerable citizens with a weakness for wagering is wrong. Too many people who can ill afford to lose money will fall prey to the easy access of keno.

Lets work to improve the economic climate in Connecticut to generate revenue for state operations.

Michael Gardner