

I am writing to register my opposition to the House bill allowing Keno gambling in Connecticut. There is no societal merit to allowing this activity that will most likely target our most vulnerable citizens.

Best regards,

Nancy Broadbent Casserley