

Gentlemen,

I want to register my strong opposition to any bill that will legalize KENO in this state. It's bad enough that the persons least able to afford it are gambling with the state lotto than having to add another, easier way for the underserved to spend their hard earned wages and state aid on more gambling in hopes of "making it big". The partial solution to correcting the looming state budget deficit is to CUT SPENDING, big time!

Peter Reinke