

Encouragement of public gambling represents the last hope of scoundrels to paper over our state's budgetary problems instead of resolving them. By enticing citizens to gamble, legislators might paper over a portion of this year's deficit, but the same issues will persist next year and our legislators will then have to come up with another gimmick.

Let's get real----and honestly address our budgetary issues.

Tim Dineen