

House bill 7054 should not be passed because it introduces a form of gambling that is too easily accessible to the most vulnerable parts of Connecticut's citizenry. The simple fact is that no one consistently makes money gambling except the house that facilitates it. This is not a legislative measure that will add to the strength of Connecticut's families, towns or cities.

Thank you for your consideration.

Win Evarts