

As a tax payer in Connecticut, I am outraged. We were promised that no state tax payer dollars would be used to build the minor league baseball stadium in Hartford. Now, while cutting millions of dollars from the Department of Developmental services and our libraries, our hard-earned money will be put toward a sports stadium in a state which does not support local sports teams. This must not be allowed.

Sincerely,
Claire Scully
Bethany, CT