

From: Dale Roberson
Town: Ellington

Testimony:

The State of Connecticut general fund should not pay for a professional ballpark for the City of Hartford. Furthermore, The New Britain Rockats Baseball team should stay in New Britain. Our state needs to re-prioritize its spending habits. The most important spending should be on public education, state infrastructure and tax assistance to small business.