

To members of the General Assembly,

As a New Britain a Rock Cat fan, I have been closely following the team's move to Hartford. Despite the skeptics, I remember promises that no State money would be used.

The Act Concerning the Admissions Tax certainly looks like a broken promise.

As a taxpayer, I'm dismayed by the idea of using monies from the General Fund to pay for a baseball stadium. This seems to be another example of the City of Hartford expecting special treatment to deal with its financial woes.

Maybe when the Malloy Administration admits there is deficit, the Segarra Administration will admit it can't afford the Yard Goats.

Sincerely,
Eric Nielsen
