

I am completely opposed to letting Hartford tap into state funds for their new baseball stadium.

Connecticut has many more urgent needs than a baseball stadium in Hartford.

Hartford said they would handle all the financing without the use of tax dollars, SO LET THEM DO WHAT THEY SAID THEY WOULD DO.

Joe Seacrist
Economic Development Coordinator
Town of Watertown