

Why should we pay for something we might never go to,Hartford wants it ,let them pay for it. They stole the team from New Briton.one of their only good source of revenue,changed a good name,to something no one understand the meaning.I think they had it mind to bill the tax payers all along. This is not a sure thing,just another big gamble.there are so many more important things to spend our money on. Please don't let this happen!
