

From: Paula Wilmot

Town: Woodstock

Testimony:

Dear Senators and Representatives,

At a time when cuts to education, veterans services, and services for families with children with disabilities, it is not a responsible use of tax dollars to support the development of a baseball stadium.

Please consider the thousands of people listed above who will be adversely affected by cuts and direct the people's dollars toward the people of Connecticut.

Best wishes,

Paula Wilmot