Subject: Senate Bill 668

As a Connecticut resident and an American, I am vehemently opposed to the physician assisted suicide bill (S.B. 668). Sacrifice and suffering can bring families closer together and increase people's faith in God. We should support bills that support life and growth, not death. It's pretty sad when human beings are deciding when someone can live or die. This country was founded on the principles of a belief in God. In fact, "In God We Trust" is printed on the back of our money. Yet our laws and legislation seem to illustrate that we don't even believe in God anymore.

Anyone who supports this bill will not get my support at the voting booth.

Sincerely,

Dominic P. Ciliberto
