

1089

I have worked in the Fairfield and New Haven County areas for the past 15 years providing behavior analytic services to children and adults with autism. I feel this bill is imperative to protect the rights of all consumers of behavior analysis services, ensuring a minimum standard of practice, and limiting unqualified persons from delivering such services.

Sincerely,

Judy Palazzo

Judy Palazzo, M.S., BCBA
Director of Behavioral Services
CT Center for Child Development