

I am writing as a Connecticut voter and taxpayer to express my support for HB 6343.

As Gov. Malloy has recently reminded us, our transportation infrastructure needs significant upgrades and improvements from public funding. CT has to step up to the plate in order to improve mass transportation from NY to Mass.

This rail improvement will help the economy, expand opportunities for commuters, and supply essential regional links.

--

Tom Long