

Please accept this email as my vote to say NO to Border Tolls. They were ineffective and dangerous when tolls did exist. To re-introduce tolls onto the highways in Connecticut is to reintroduce more accidents onto a system which is dangerous without tolls. Tractor trailer drivers are, for the most part, unregulated and their erratic driving on the highways is a demonstration of their indifference to highway regulations. Tolls will create greater chaos over and above what already exist.

Dorothy A Smulley