

To all concerned:

Please do not discriminate against Connecticut residents who live near the border. Enfield residents, for example, would pay more in tolls than residents living in the interior of the state. Also, Connecticut has raised taxes plenty in the last few years. Try to focus your efforts on balancing the budget with existing revenues instead of thinking of ways of taking more of our money.

Thank you

Frank Rumery
Enfield