

Dear Sir or Madam: Please take the idea of tolls at the state borders out of consideration. We had tolls on the state roads years ago. They were sources of pollution, frustration and encouraged evasive maneuvers through local streets to avoid them. The amount of money raised in no way compensates for the harm done. Respectfully, Louise Foerster