

I do not agree with another hidden tax. Tolls are another way to tax the citizens and TAXPAYERS of Connecticut.

Why would the state issue another tax to its already burdensome cost of living ? In addition, this would not be fair to those residents who do not need to travel on the roads that will have the tolls.

But the BIG question is ---will the "revenue"/tax be really used as stated? Or will the state play the old shell game?

Didn't we have tolls a short while ago? and didn't we remove them? What is the COST of building the tolls?

As far as I can determine, I do not see any reason for tolls if the state LEARNED TO LIVE WITHIN ITS MEANS.

(besides--the state still has to pay the state employees who won the lawsuit against former governor Rowland and I believe I understand there is a huge deficit looming in July 2015? and just where is the 'surplus' that was mentioned during the campaigns?)

I need to pay attention to my spending, pay my bills and live within my means --WHY DOESN'T THE STATE? I can't just keep borrowing or putting off payments to things I have purchased. Sooner or later you go bankrupt---and you look like the boy who cried wolf too often. WHAT IS THE WORSE THAT CAN HAPPEN IF WE DON'T PUT UP TOLLS ?

IT'S NICE TO WANT--BUT YOU CAN'T ALWAYS GET

WHAT YOU WANT.
