

I wish to state my objection to a proposal to put up tolls on Connecticut's borders. As a resident of a CT boarder town, Somers, I feel that I will be unfairly penalized whenever I commute between CT and MA. Furthermore, I don't have any confidence that the toll money raised will be used toward its intended purpose but instead will be wasted away.

Sincerely
Wesley Smith, Somers, CT