

I oppose Gov. Malloys' proposed budget cuts which will negatively impact our state parks, fisheries and funding for the preservation of open space and farmland. Connecticut state parks are a valuable asset available to all its citizens. Without the proper funding for maintenance they will rapidly degrade. As in the past we will foolishly cut corners now and then have to spend considerable sums to get them back into shape. I urge the General Assembly to restore and even amplify the funding.

Mark C Corvo
382 Main Street
Cromwell, Ct.