

I am a teacher who has been involved in the Salmon in our Schools Program for over 15 years. It is a valuable program teaching the students about the Salmon life cycle and the legacy program. We do not want these fish to disappear from our Connecticut waterways. The children also learn the lessons about being stewards of the land.

Please keep the Kensington Hatchery open for the Salmon in our Schools Program and the Trout in the Classroom Program.

Thank you.

Mary Silverman

34 Old Middletown Ave.

East Hampton, CT