

Just wanted to express my displeasure on the thought of losing our fish hatchery. The Kensington fish hatchery provides a tremendous fishery for us anglers here in ct. The majority of people who fish are conservationists and the revitalization of our rivers has improved drastically over the last 20 years. I personally spend 9 months on the river fishing and this would be a travesty. More to come.

Very Concerned,
Mike Wilson