

To whom it May Concern:

I understand the necessity to evaluate our budget and spending priorities.

At the same time, I deeply appreciate the resource our town library of Simsbury as well as the state library Consortium provide to the public.

Education, culture and community are available through our network. Please keep this valuable resource in a healthy state for all its users of every age.

Thank you,

Marianne Flynn
Resident of Simsbury